Shrunken Coins and Technical Books

To:

Paul Kukuchka
902 Delaware Ave.
Landsdale, PA 19446
USA

Thank you for the interest in my technical books! Over a period of many years I have searched the USA and around the world to locate many of the scarcer volumes that I'm now offering. I also have a large number of books that have not yet been listed. If you are searching for other scarce and out of print titles in the areas of electrical engineering, physics, or technology, please email or call me. I can also do book searches on your behalf.

Thanks again for your business, and happy reading!
